

← Back

Put 'Monkey' on your shelf

---

By Eric Henrickson December 3, 2010 Publication: Detroit News, The (MI) Page: C2
Word Count: 221

The Detroit News

This week's new releases for kids, teens and families:

"Monkey Monkey Music: The Videos" (Not rated, Monkey Monkey Music, $19.99): Meredith LaVande, the "Renaissance woman of children's music," collects 15 videos based on songs, including "Jump High" and "Can You Paint a Rainbow," from her hit first album. For more information, visit www.monkeymonkeymusic.com.

"Sid & Marty Krofft's Saturday Morning Hits" (Not rated, Vivendi, $14.93): It's a blast from the psychedelic past with this collection of episodes from some of Sid & Marty Krofft's biggest '60s and '70s hits, including "H.R. Pufnstuff," "Electra Woman and Dyna Girl," "Wonderbug" and "The Bugaloos."

"Looney Tunes Super Stars: Foghorn Leghorn & Friends" "Barnyard Bigmouth" (Not rated, Warner Bros. $19.98): Fourteen of the 15 remastered shorts on this collection have never been released on DVD and include Henry Hawk, Barnyard Dawg and the Goofy Gophers. Also out this week is a collection of previously released Tweety and Sylvester shorts called "Feline Fwenzy."

"Fantasia" "Fantasia 2000" (Rated G, Disney, $39.99/$45.99): The Disney classics (albeit an edited version of "Fantasia") make it to Blu-ray. Of note: The Blu-ray version of this re-release includes "Destino," an early collaboration with surreal artist Salvador Dali.

Other titles: "Marvel Knights: Iron Man" "Extremis," "The Sorcerer's Apprentice"

ehenrickson@detnews.com

(313) 222-2799

Read the Geek Watch blog at www.detnews.com/geekwatch

---

Detroit News, The (MI)

Date: December 3, 2010

Page: C2

(c) 2010, The Detroit News. All rights reserved.